"Feeling Good"

Beatles and Blues in Mattapoisett By Kenneth J. Souza

You would think that with two jobs, family commitments, and various other projects to juggle, Kenneth Pacheco of Mattapoisett wouldn't have the time to dedicate to much else. But the well-known Mattapoisett police officer and proprietor of Village Signs still manages to find a few spare moments to devote to his musical "hobby" as lead singer of Goodfellas, a band of local musicians who will be opening a benefit concert for Mattapoisett Police Brotherhood Local 366 this Friday night.

According to Mr. Pacheco, the group actually began as a lark two years ago when he was asked to put something together for the benefit organized for Maurice "Mudgie" Tavares. The response was so positive that the band found themselves booked for other local engagements like the Portuguese feast in New Bedford and the Apple-Peach Festival in Acushnet — a gig at which they are also slated to play again next month.

"The band is made up of guys that have been playing (music) for years ... some of these guys have been playing for 30 years," Mr. Pacheco said. "When we first got together, we were thinking about calling the band One Foot in the Grave ... but we've got a couple of younger members, too."

They finally settled on a name which fit the look of the band. "During one performance, some of the guys were wearing hats and I said they looked like gangsters ... so we came up with Goodfellas," Mr. Pacheco said, referring to the Martin Scorsese gangster film starring Robert DeNiro and Joe Pesci.

What's most apparent about Mr. Pacheco is his enthusiasm for the group and his pride in declaring that Goodfellas is a Mattapoisett band. "Basically this is a hobby for the guys — we don't do this for a living," he said. "Half the guys are from Mattapoisett, so it's basically a Mattapoisett band. It started in Mattapoisett, we practice in Mattapoisett, we call it a Mattapoisett band."

In addition to front man Kenneth Pacheco, the group also features the talents of fellow Mattapoisett residents Rick LeBlanc, Manny DeLima, and Chris Richards, and is rounded out with John Zell of Marion, Kevin McGuire and Tim Duarte of Acushnet, and newcomer Steve Chaplin of Foxboro. The band performs what Mr. Pacheco describes as "rock and roll, soul-type rhythm and blues" and could best be compared to the style of music popularized by The Blues Brothers. Their main repertoire consists of sing-along music from the '50's and '60's.

In what may be a tough act to follow, the selfproclaimed "ulfimate tribute to the Beatles" will be sharing the stage with the Goodfellas this Friday night at Mattapoisett's Camp Massasoit. Somewhat similar to the popular Broadway show "Beatlemania," The Fab Four has played across the country and also includes some area natives. "There are two members who are originally from Mattapoisett," Mr. Pacheco said. "They look like the Beatles, they sound like the Beatles."

The concert performance will be held on Friday, August 14 at Camp Massasoit on scenic Mattapoisett Harbor. Goodfellas will hit the stage at 7:00 pm for a onehour set and will be followed by The Fab Four from 8:00 to 10:00 pm. Tickets are $15 per person and are available now at the Mattapoisett Police Station or at the gate the night of the show. All proceeds will benefit the Mattapoisett Police Brotherhood to fund such programs such as scholarships and local charities. The concert is presented by the Mattapoisett Police Brotherhood in conjunction with Admit One Productions, the same company which organizes the annual concerts at Silvershell Beach for the Marion Police Brotherhood every year.

The Mattapoisett Police Brotherhood and the Southeast Regional Transit Authority (SRTA) is providing free trolley service for concert-goers who wish to park in the Knights of Columbus Hall parking lot across from the entrance to Camp Massasoit on Route 6. The trolley service will run from 6:30 to 10:30 pm and shuttle people back and forth from the concert to the lot. The Mattapoisett Lions Club will also be serving hot dogs, hamburgers and refreshments during the show. Participants are asked to bring lawn chairs and/or blankets if so desired, and are encouraged to arrive early to get the best seats.

Mr. Pacheco promises a fun evening of great entertainment and hopes the scenic location will help draw a good crowd. "When (Goodfellas) plays, I go right out into the audience and get people dancing," he said. "I'm hoping to see anywhere from 800 to 1,000 people."

Marion Selectmen's Meeting

August 11, 1998

By Kenneth J. Souza

A regular meeting of the Marion Board of Selectmen was called to order on Tuesday, August 11 at 7:00 pm by Chairman pro tem Jonathan "Jody" Dickerson. Also present were Selectman Loretta B. Schaefer and Secretary Helene Craver. Neither Selectman Albert E. Winters or Executive Secretary Ray Pickles were present for the meeting.

After signing treasury warrants #6A, #6B, #6, #7, and #0799 for the week, the board approved a request to accept Chapter 90 reimbursement funds for work on Mill Street and Wareham Road, and also unanimously voted to approve the minutes of July 28 meeting.

Under incoming correspondence for the week, the board received a report from Department of Public Works (DPW) Superintendent Rob Zora regarding the use of the Marion Transfer Station by other area residents as per the board's request. As of August 4, the DPW has been keeping track of what is being brought into the Marion Transfer Station by residents of Marion, Carver, Rochester, and Wareham.

"At the present time, I don't see any problems with this arrangement," Mr. Zora wrote. "If the board

The board noted that the Town of Rochester has requested to extend their residents' use of the transfer station until a permanent transfer station is set up at SEMASS. "It seems to me if the DPW Superintendent sees no problem, we can extend their use of (our) facility," Selectman Schaefer said. "I'd move that we extend their use of the Marion Transfer Station for another 30 days." The board unanimously approved the motion.

Animal Control Officer Susan King next sent a request to the board to issue a restraining order to Elizabeth VanDerVeer, the owner of a male Golden Retriever. Ms. King has issued tickets to Ms. VanDerVeer on September 7, 1997; June 16, 1998; July 17, 1998; July 21, 1998; July 28, 1998; and July 29, 1998. "On two separate occasions, I have had to quarantine this dog because he nipped two children at Silvershell Beach," Ms. King wrote. "I have spoken to Ms. VanDerVeer numerous times to try and find a solution to this problem and to convey the seriousness of this problem. At this point, I feel a restraining order is the only solution."

The board unanimously voted to issue the restraining order as per Ms. King's request. "When a dog starts nipping at children, we're exposing ourselves to potential liability," Selectman Schaefer said. "I think this is a serious matter."

request to the board to appoint a delegate and alternate delegate to the Plymouth County Advisory Board for fiscal year 1998-1999. Selectman Dickerson noted that he is the board's delegate, and Selectman Schaefer is the alternate.

The Department of Environmental Management (DEM) next sent information about the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP) for which the Town of Marion is eligible to apply. Property owners in the communities which are accepted receive a premium reduction on all new or renewed flood insurance policies. The premium reduction rate begins at 5 percent and can potentially reach 50 percent of a policy holder's annual flood insurance premium. The board suggested contacting the DEM's Flood Hazard Management Program staff to obtain more information.

On a similar note, State Senator Marc Pacheco sent notification that applications for the Massachusetts Community Development Block Grant Program are now available. The deadline to apply is October 16, 1998.

The Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) sent a copy of a notice to DPW Superintendent Rob Zora regarding possible problems with gull control in the area. "Gulls have been identified as the cause of several environmental problems, the most serious of which has been the contamination of some public water supplies as a result of gulls roosting at drinking water reservoirs," according to David B. Ellis, Chief of the Solid Waste Management Section for DEP. "Other problems created by gulls include creating bird hazards for aircraft (when landfills are near airports), contributing to the decline of some endangered species by increasing predation and competition for nesting space, and causing nuisance conditions at parks and recreation areas."

There being no further matters to come before the board, they unanimously voted to adjourn for the evening at 7:15 pm. Their next regular meeting will be held on Tuesday, August 25 at 7:00 pm.

The board first met with Kathy Nyer, who was Mr. Dean's recommendation for the Town Hall clerk's position. Mr. Dean said they had 28 applicants for the position, which was whittled down to six potential interviewees, with one declining. Of the five remaining, Ms. Nyer was the suggested replacement. "I'm happy to recommend (Ms. Nyer), she has great references ... and is coming to us most recently from the Rockland Trust Company," Mr. Dean said.

Mr. Dean said his recommendation was based on the interview process, with input from Building Inspector Robert Francis and Town Accountant Claudette Coutu. Ms. Nyer said she would be available to begin work on August 31, or August 26 at the earliest if needed.

Chairman Cutler stressed that as with any new hire, there would be a probationary period at the outset to determine if Ms. Nyer is suitable for the job. "You'll be working with various personalities and the general public," Selectman Parker said. "I hope you don't have any apprehensions about the position."

With that, the board unanimously voted to appoint Kathy Nyer as the new Town Clerk, effective August 26 and based on Mr. Dean's recommendation.

The board then considered appointing residents to the Government Study Committee. To date there have been five applicants, with a sixth potential candidate, according to Mr. Dean. "My sense is that we should set up a group of five or six based on those who have

With that, the board unanimously voted to appoint the following six applicants to the Government Study Committee: Robert Cummings, Vincent Ryan, Chris Byron, Elaine Steward, Marjorie Barrows, and Melinda Kershaw.

At 7:05 pm the board met with Police Chief Walter Denham and Zoning Enforcement Officer Bruce Maksy to discuss a non-criminal disposition schedule, and the establishment of anti-nuisance and anti-noise regulations for the town. Laws Chapter 40, Section 21D. This law attaches an across-the-board, $100-per-day fine for such violations, but there are no specific guidelines for individual violations.

"I thought we already adopted a by-law which established a fee structure for non-criminal violations?" Chairman Cutler asked. Mr. Maksy said they did, but the schedule was incomplete.

"With any violations which (Mr. Maksy) encounters now, his only option is to write a $100 ticket," Mr. Dean said. "I think we're looking to set up a schedule of fees for different violations ... to help extend the authority of the Zoning Enforcement Officer."

"What we're looking for is a tool to get people into compliance (with zoning regulations)," Mr. Maksy said. "The town is growing, and this is something we may need in the future."

Selectman Ryan agreed, but added that any such changes should encompass the town's zoning regulations in its entirety. "If we're going to change anything, I think we need to do it from scratch instead of amending sections," she said.

Both Mr. Maksy and Police Chief Denham also agreed that the town needs to consider both an antinuisance and anti-noise component to the existing zoning by-laws. "In a few years, we might end up with a drinking establishment in town," Chief Denham said. "It might be wise to have by-laws in place to address noise or loud music."

After deciding that some type of ad hoc committee should be formed to address these issues, the board unanimously voted to establish a "By-Law Enforcement Committee" and suggested that it be comprised of Mr. Maksy, Police Chief Denham, Fire Chief Scott Ashworth, Building Inspector Robert Francis, and a

Under the Executive Secretary's report, Russell Dean confirmed that he is resigning his position at the end of the month to take a new job as Assistant Town Manager in Reading, MA. "I'd like to thank the board and the town for making remarkable progress over the past year-and-a-half," he said. "It's been an enjoyable experience, and it will be missed." Mr. Dean agreed to assist the board in preparing advertisements and establishing criteria for finding a replacement.

The board acknowledged receipt of an American flag donated by the family of Shirley Ellabrook to be flown on the flagpole in front of Town Hall. The board wished to thank Mr. and Ms. Robert Brightman of Fall

Mr. Dean noted that there are two pending dog complaint issues which may require the scheduling of a dog hearing. The first involves a matter on Hiller Road and the other is on Tabor Lane. The former has already been through an initial hearing process, but residents have made complaints once again of excessive barking.

Selectman Parker suggested that two of the Assistant Dog Officers go down to the property this week and observe the situation. "I agree that it's a good idea to have two Dog Officers other than (Animal Control Officer) Tom Medeiros go down there and make suggestions," Chairman Cutler said. "Maybe we can ask Brad Morse to interview some of the neighbors and report back to us." The board agreed that both issues might require a public hearing.

Chairman Cutler suggested that since Selectman Ryan hasn't had time to review the proposal submitted by Police Chief Walter Denham last week to reorganize his department, they would hold that matter for another week. The board agreed with the suggestion.

In reorganizing their own board, Selectmen unanimously voted to retain Richard Cutler as chairman, appoint Naida Parker as vice chairman, and appoint Patricia Ryan as clerk. The board also voted to appoint Selectman Ryan as their representative on the ORR Advisory Committee, and also as the board's representative on the Capital Planning Committee. Ms.

Ryan, in turn, is resigning from her former position as Chairman of the FinCom.

The board is also looking for residents who are interested in serving on the Capital Planning Committee. Those interested should send a letter to the Board of Selectmen, c/o Rochester Town Hall, 1 Constitution Way, Rochester, MA 02770.

Under incoming correspondence for the week, the board received an update from the Massachusetts Department of Revenue regarding forthcoming estimated receipts for the town (so-called "Cherry Sheets") for fiscal year 1999. The total estimated receipts for cities and towns in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts is $4.174 billion, an increase of $368.1 million or 9.7 percent over last year.

DOUBLE IN 12 YEARS AT 6%

During inflation (though it's lower, we're still in it), there's an excellent case for investing in real estate. Most of the investment is paid for with borrowed money. In other words, someone else's dollars provides your mortgage money. Also, a mortgage loan is the only way the average consumer can borrow long-term money.

This, then, is your big chance to turn inflation to your advantage. Your mortgage gives you full-priced dollars to work with today. You then pay them back with cheaper dollars you will be earning for the next 20 to 30 years. On top of that, if your home increases in value by a conservative 6% per year, it will double it's value every 12 years.

This is not a cynical approach. It's realistic. In fact, it's one of the main reasons why many wealthy individuals continue to make big real estate investments. You can do the same with a home that you own and need anyway.

"It's a good sign ... revenue is up," Selectman Ryan said. "When you look at all the numbers, we went into the current fiscal year cutting 10 percent of the budget. Then we ended up level-funding most line items."

Highway Surveyor Jeff Eldridge also submitted an update on the town's ongoing recycling program and suggested that he would like to start composting leaves, grass clippings, and yard waste for residents but he needs the board's support to utilize a piece of town land for this purpose. The board unanimously voted to ask Mr. Eldridge if he had a specific property in mind for this project.

The board also unanimously voted to cancel their regular meeting scheduled for Monday, August 24 due to lack of a quorum.

In regards to advertising for a new Executive Secretary, the board agreed that they should dedicate a special session for this task. "(Mr. Dean) has been compiling a list of responsibilities so we can make the transition as smooth as possible," Chairman Cutler said. "I think it would be appropriate to set aside one evening just to discuss this issue."

At 8:42 pm the board unanimously voted to continue the meeting on Thursday, August 13 at 5:30 pm for the sole purpose of discussing the Executive Secretary's position and the criteria for hiring a replacement for Russell Dean.

Animal Advice Jay Gould, DVM

EAR INFECTIONS

My dog has dark chocolate colored dirt in his ears and he is always shaking his head. Is this dirt? What causes this?

Your dog probably has a yeast infection in his ear. A dark, waxy discharge associated with a musky odor is characteristic. Yeast infections are common in dogs that get water in their ears and dogs with allergies. Treating ears with a 50/50 mixture of vinegar and water makes an acidic environment that may resolve mild cases. If the ears look red or are painful, see your veterinarian.

beautiful historical/nature trail, if the plans of the Acushnet Historical Commission come to pass.

Until recently, aside from the rough character of the trail, the property was inaccessible because it was in private hands and the owners frowned on trespassers. Nevertheless, vandals managed to get in and one day a couple of years ago were surprised in the act of attempting to steal the enormous granite "1814" date stone. Fortunately, they were caught in the act and the date stone was safely relocated to the front yard of the Long Plain Museum and installed in plain sight with a descriptive plaque.

Preparing to apply for a "Recreational Trails Program" grant of the Commonwealth's Department of Environmental Management, members of the Board of Selectmen, the Historical Commission, the Conservation Commission, and others have several times trekked the rough, 1,600-foot trail through woods, wet meadows and underbrush-choked paths, making plans for the commission's latest project.

Today the property belongs to the Town of Acushnet, having been acquired as part of the golf course

Crane W. Stookey in his review of the novel. "The goal of the book is to display in the five mariners of the title the five styles of the Buddha families ... as the five map the unknown world, Gilkerson maps the world of our styles. He works with a distinct verbal palette, drawn from his love of polysyllabic description and an obvious love of both detail and ambiance."

During this month, Bill Gilkerson will be doing a number of talks and readings from Boston to Philadelphia, and the public is invited to meet him at the Marion Art Center on the corner of Main and Pleasant Streets in Marion on August 18. Admission is FREE and refreshments will be served.

An exhibition of original prints is now on display at the Marion Art Center. The featured artists are Sandra Bilodeau, Mary Dawson, and Gail Marie Nauen. Each one works in a different print medium with styles unique to their personal interpretations of flowers, landscapes, objects and other images.

Sandra Bilodeau has been working in silk screen printing for the past six years. She has taken various art courses at UMass Dartmouth for the past 17 years and recently decided to concentrate on silk screening. She lives in Mattapoisett and has a studio in her home. This is her first show in a three-person exhibit.

Mary Cleeves Dawson received a BS in Painting and Design from Carnegie Institute of Technology. She later studied collagraph printmaking at New England

School of Art and Design in Boston with Mary Ann Wenniger. Collagraphs are one of Ms. Dawson's favorite media. She was selected for the Channel 2 Collection in 1981 and 1982, and she resides in Marion and has a studio there

Gail Marie Nauen is a graphic designer and printmaker who works out of her Old Main Street home in Carver, MA. Ms. Nauen primarily works in monotypes and oil bar on paper. Several years ago Ms. Nauen decided to focus on local landscapes, especially the cranberry bogs.

The show will be installed in both galleries at the Marion Art Center through September 2. Gallery hours are Tuesday through Friday, 1:00 to 5:00 pm, and

Project GROW Applications

A recent mailing, based on town census information, was sent to all families with age-eligible children — the mailing contained a brochure and application materials for the Project GROW preschool program. If you did not receive a mailing, have an ageeligible child, and are interested in this program, you may pick up an application at the Office of the Superintendent of Schools located at Old Rochester Regional High School, 135 Marion Road, Mattapoisett, MA. Priority will be given to applications received by August 14.

Project GROW, the local public school early childhood program, is seeking students for the upcoming school year. Anticipated state grants, combined with local funds, support the operation of the program. Project GROW classrooms are located in Center School in Mattapoisett, Memorial School in Rochester, and Sippican School in Marion. All classes run for four hours a day. Starting this fall, the schedule will change with classes held Tuesday through Friday. The program follows the public school calendar and is tuition-free. Parents are responsible for providing transportation to and from school each day. Efforts are made to assist parents in forming carpools.

Enrollment is open to all children residing in Marion, Mattapoisett, or Rochester who were born between January 1, 1994 and September 1, 1995. Preference will be given to children from low-income families and others in need as determined by the Early Childhood Advisory Council. The purpose of Project GROW is to provide preschool experience to children whose families have been unable to enroll them in another program and who desire a preschool experience for their child as well as to provide children with special needs the opportunity to receive service in the leastrestrictive environment.

Each class consists of up to fifteen students, the majority of whom are students with special needs. The program is staffed by a certified teacher and an aide. As a family-centered program, parents play an active and vital role in the educational experience through a wide variety of parent-involvement opportunities. Home visits are also an integral part of Project GROW. The teacher visits each student's home regularly throughout the year. Families will be notified of student enrollment the week of August

Adoptable Animals

The local chapter of Animal Umbrella, Inc. is once again happy to announce to readers that on Saturday another successful adopt-a-thon was held at the National Pet Care Center in Dartmouth. Two of the older adults ("Marshmallow" and "Cali") were adopted along with eight kittens including a pair of four-month-old siblings who went home together.

Also, good news from the Fairhaven Animal Shelter — three of the five adoptable dogs went to new homes and an adult cat was reunited with its owners. New foster people were added to the list which makes it possible for the group to move cats from cages to home situations. If you have a spare room where a cat or a few kittens could reside while awaiting adoption, please call one of the Animal Umbrella representatives; they supply all the necessities:

CBB Seeks "Baywatchers"

The Coalition for Buzzards Bay's (CBB) water-quality monitoring program, "Baywatchers," has begun its seventh season of water testing in the 28 major harbors and coves surrounding Buzzards Bay. The CBB is a non-profit, regional environmental organization dedicated to the protection, restoration, and sustainable use of Buzzards Bay and its watershed. The CBB works to "Save Buzzards Bay" with 60 to 80 dedicated citizens who are helping to monitor the health of the bay waters.

Baywatchers are citizen volunteers who can be sighted weekly during the early morning hours between 6:00 and 9:00 am collecting samples of the bay from piers and docks in every town from Westport to Woods Hole. Volunteers are trained, equipped with a water quality sampling kit, and assigned a sampling site to monitor and test.

The water samples are tested for temperature, salinity, water clarity, and dissolved oxygen. The data collected is used to establish a yearly record of the water quality of the bay, evaluate the success of clean-up efforts by the surrounding towns, and highlight areas in need of restoration. In the first five years important trends in water quality have been determined and noted in a comprehensive Baywatchers Report.

Since May, core volunteers have been retrained and new volunteers are being recruited, trained and are currently out monitoring. However, volunteers are still needed at the following sites:

- Marion Hiller's Cove:
- Fairhaven Fairhaven Ship Yard, Fort Phoenix, Nasketucket River Bridge;
- New Bedford Acushnet River (Wood Street Bridge).

If you are interested in participating in the water testing, the CBB can use your help. Please call Tony Williams (Water Quality Coordinator) at 999-6363.

MOVIE REVIEW

Snake Eyes is about as meaningless as can be, but it's one of the few movies this summer that I have no problem recommending. The key to appreciating the film is to be in on the joke — that is, the ongoing in-joke that is Brian De Palma's career. He plays with the audience, he plays with the critics (and sure enough, the critics have panned Snake Eyes), and God knows he plays with the camera. De Palma devotes full widescreen close-ups to things that mean nothing, and he gives us teasing, blurry glimpses of crucial events. It's all play, all movie. And De Palma's exerting such ingenuity and energy over a half-baked thriller plot is part of the joke.

De Palma is in command of his material here (he concocted the story with scripter David Koepp) in a way he wasn't in his last film, Mission: Impossible, an empty blockbuster dependent more on impersonal special-effects thrills than on the diabolical perceptual fake-outs that are De Palma's specialty. In Snake Eyes, De Palma hauls out some of his favorite thematic toys to play with: technology, voyeurism, conspiracy/assassination, seduction. The whole movie is on a slant, either shot on a diagonal axis or diagonally bisected, so we get triangles within the rectangular frame — and within the triangles are the squares of countless monitors and TV sets. De Palma is back working with the geometry of paranoia.

The story itself is a multiple-viewpoint study of one event that De Palma practically blows off in the first half hour — he's more interested in the twenty-minute tracking shot that opens the movie. The tracking shot serves two purposes: it puts De Palma ahead of every other director who's done it (you can almost hear him echoing his hero: "I am the king!"), and it sketches in the main characters. The shot follows corrupt Atlantic City detective Rick Santoro (Nicolas Cage) as he strolls through a packed stadium on the night of a big boxing match. Rick talks to many people, most of whom turn out to have nothing to do with the action. It's the people he barely notices or doesn't talk to much who tum out to be important — like the mysterious woman in white (Carla Qugino) sitting next to him, or his best friend Major Kevin Dunne (Qary Sinise), who's in charge of security at the stadium.

The Secretary of Defense is at the fight, and he's shot in the throat despite Major Dunne's best efforts to protect him. Why? Who's behind it? I have a feeling De Palma doesn't care, and he doesn't care if you care. (If you do care about such mundane plot-centered stuff, he's saying, then you're a sucker.) In Snake Eyes, as in vintage De Palma, the artifice of moviemaking itself becomes a joke — only more so here, because it's so visually oriented and visually loaded. De Palma keeps adding lies within lies, like a Chinese box of untrustworthy sights and sounds. Characters remember things differently or don't even see things very well; one way or another, everyone is blinded or laboring under their incomplete piece of the puzzle. By the time De Palma breaks out his trademark split-screen, it's a great comic flourish: only by seeing double can we see the truth.

De Palma also has a star who can match his flourishes. Allowed to run loose in this teeming playpen of a movie, Cage struts and hoots his way through a flamboyant peacock's performance that helps to make up for City of Angels. Towards the end, Cage's Rick Santoro takes a turn into tormented sincerity, one of De Palma's few false moves here. Rick's sense of being betrayed doesn't touch us as it's meant to. And his final scene isn't necessary.

The scene that plays through the end credits, though, is one of the wittiest and slowest-building jokes De Palma has ever played. In Snake Eyes, De Palma is so confident of his own deceptive mastery that he can make you sit there looking for meaning, laugh at yourself when you realize there is none ... and, while you're laughing, you almost miss a clue that does mean something. Or might mean something. De Palma is also confident enough in his comic instinct to laugh at those who sit there puzzling over his film. It's a movie. It's a joke. Don't you get it?

New Hours

The Mattapoisett Public Library is now open on Saturday until 3:00 pm.

In the Fall, more evening hours will be added during the week, according to the newly-elected Chairman of the Library Trustees, Bette Roberts. The extra hours are in response to the results of a survey of library patrons earlier this year.

Ms. Roberts said the new hours are possible because two staff positions unfilled for about 10 months have been filled. Barbara Perrault has begun as a Technical Services staffer and Melissa Correira as Library Technician.

Other trustees elected to new positions this week were: Joan Andersen (clerk); Bob Walter (treasurer); Bob Atkinson (building and grounds); and Betty Theriault and Bob Walter (computer committee).

Discount Passes

The Mattapoisett Public Library is offering discounted passes to state attractions. Passes are available for: John F. Kennedy Library, Columbia Point, Boston (free pass for four); Museum of Fine Arts, Boston (free for two adults per pass - library has two passes available); Museum of Science, Boston (coupon for four, $1 per person for specific dates - does not include Omni or Planetarium tickets); Plimoth Plantation, Plymouth (free admission for two adults and two children, daily now through November); Roger Williams Park Zoo, Providence (discounted pass for four, $2.50 per adult, $1.25 for children and seniors - does not include Jurassic Journey).

Passes can be reserved at the library or by calling 758-4171, according to Sue Tweedy, Library Director. The pass program is financed by specified gifts, unspecified gifts and donations to the library.

Acushnet Town Clerk

Census Forms

The Annual 1998 Census Forms have been mailed. Please return census forms as soon as possible to the Town Clerk's office. This information is important for Federal and State grants and other types of state aid. The census information is also used for the future planning by all branches of town government. Failure to comply could result in your removal from the voting list. Dog Licenses 1998 Dog Licenses are now available in the Town Clerk's office during regular working hours. In accordance with the Town of Acushnet By-Laws and Massachusetts General Laws, Chapter 140, Section 137, all dogs over the age of three months must be licensed by the Town Clerk.

The license fee structure will remain the same as last year: Spayed female dogs and neutered male dogs - $6 per year; Unaltered female and male dogs - $9 per year.

Dog owners who fail to license any dog will be subject to a fine of $25. This year a strict enforcement policy will be implemented. Remember, state law requires that you present a valid rabies vaccination certificate for dogs three months and older to the Town Clerk prior to licensing.

Veterans Health Benefits

Incorrect information on the Internet has prompted the Veterans Office for Mattapoisett and Rochester to issue clarification on eligibility of veterans for health care. The reports have led many veterans to worry falsely that they may lose their VA medical benefits if they do not enroll by October 1, 1998. The Department of Veterans Affairs is mandated by the Veterans Health Care Eligibility Reform Act of 1996 to establish an enrollment system for health care services to be in place by October 1, 1998. While veterans must enroll to receive care, it does not mean that veterans who have not applied for enrollment by that time will lose their eligibility for VA health care.

Veterans who are automatically enrolled and who do not need to register are veterans who have service-connected disability of 50 percent or more, veterans who have been discharged from the military service for less than a year for compensable disability that the military determined was incurred or aggravated in the line of duty, veterans seeking care for service-connected disability, and veterans who have received VA health care after October 1, 1996. All other veterans are encouraged to enroll by October 1, 1998 so that the VA can provide a current national database.

To enroll, veterans may contact Mr. James Burrows at the VA Hospital in Providence at (401) 457-3300 or call for an appointment at the New Bedford Medical Center, 175 Elm Street, New Bedford at 994-0217. For further information, you may also contact Harvey Blanchette or Paula Butterfield in the Veterans Office at 758-4114, Tuesday through Thursday from 8:00 am to 1:00 pm.

Mattapoisett Housing Authority

The Mattapoisett Housing Authority is presently accepting elderly, non-elderly, and family applications for their state-aided housing. Net income limits are $25,400 for one person, $29,050 for two persons, and $32,700 for three persons in a household. There are no asset limits. Once determined eligible, the applicant is placed on a waiting list which does not guarantee immediate occupancy.

Information and application packets may be obtained during the following office hours: Tuesday, 7:00 am to 2:30 pm and Thursday, 8:30 am to 4:30 pm. The office is located at 1 Acushnet Road, Box 53, Mattapoisett, MA 02739. The telephone number is 758-4664.

The Wanderer gladly accepts any and all news and press release items from local non-profit organizations for publication on a weekly basis.
